The National Bowling Stadium

"The Taj Mahal of Tenpins…" ---L.A. Times

Arrive in Reno and play like the pros! Located just across the street from the Reno Events Center (home of the NLC), The National Bowling Stadium is a four-story, 78 lane bowling shrine. The facility features the world longest video screen (440 feet!) which will display your strikes and spares in vivid color for the rest of your BPA bowling buddies to see!

Our evening includes:

- 3 games per person (including ball and shoe rental)
- a delicious barbecue dinner catered by Kinder's, winner of The Nugget's Rib Cook-Off, featuring chicken, pork and scrumptious side dishes!

Date: Tuesday, May 6, 2008 Time: 6 p.m.
Location: National Bowling Stadium, Center Street, Reno, NV
Cost: $30
